

Rīga, December 8, 2000, Nr. M&C/490

Reference on co-operation with Riga Managers School

To whom it may concern

PricewaterhouseCoopers co-operates with Riga Managers School at the annual international conference Audit & Accounting since 1998 being one of the conference supporters.

The conference brings together high level professionals in the field to share ideas and inform on the innovations in audit and accounting. The events organised by Riga Managers School experience high attendance because of the carefully planned programme that covers professionals' presentations on the most essential current issues in the industry in the Baltics and internationally.

Riga Managers School has shown professional behaviour in partnering relations, planning and scheduling the events, arranging the invitation process and other organisational issues.

Sincerely,

Gordon Latimir
Director

